

GOES EIGHT ROUNDS

DUNN AND WALCOTT AT THE SEASIDE ATHLETIC CLUB.

They Step into the Ring for a Twenty-Five Round Fight at One Hundred and Fifty-Two Pounds—First Blood for Dunn in the Second, but After the Fourth Walcott Walks Him at Will and Gets the Decision in the Eighth. When the Police Stop the Fight—Patterson Pigeon Shoot—Races and Other Sporting News.

New York, April 3.—There was a fairly big crowd at the boxing bout before the Seaside Athletic club to-night. The opening bout between Mike Leonard and Eddie Pierce, both of New York, was decided in favor of Pierce.

The next bout was between Jimmy Handier of Newark, N. J., and Al O'Brien of Philadelphia, ten rounds at 133 pounds. Both men were very clever. In the fourth round O'Brien got a punch in the stomach that floored him, and in the sixth came very nearly going out with a right hand punch on the jaw and a fearful left hand jab on the stomach. He fell to the floor and was almost counted out before he regained his feet. O'Brien was at the mercy of Handier again in the seventh round and fell to the floor in an attempt to avoid a body blow. In the ninth Handier banged away for the face, landing nearly every time, and landed on the neck just as the going ended. Handier won.

Mike Dunn of Australia, and Joe Walcott of Boston were then announced for the big event of twenty-five rounds at 152 pounds. Walcott was seconded by Tom O'Rourke, Joe Butler of Philadelphia, and Tad Mutha of New York. Dunn was seconded by "Young Grillo," Tom Deany and Patty Gorman of Australia, and Benny Miller of England.

The first round was tame. In the second Walcott planted a very hard right hand jab under Dunn's heart and Dunn got in a right hand slash on Walcott's mouth, securing first blood. In the third Walcott rushed Dunn to the ropes, but Dunn planted his left again on the mouth. In the fourth Walcott landed a blow on Dunn's throat and in a rapid exchange his right got to Dunn's stomach. Walcott landed on the chest with his left, and Dunn again landed with a blow on the stomach. In the fifth round Dunn jabbed Walcott five times in the nose with his left, and Walcott retaliated with his right on the jaw. Walcott got in a right swing on the head. Dunn uprooted Walcott in the nose but the Boston man got square with two jabs on the face.

In the sixth round Walcott rushed, but Dunn stopped him and uprooted him twice and landed with his right three times in two months. In the eighth round Walcott landed on ribs twice and put his right on the jaw. Dunn went to his knees. Walcott hit Dunn when he was down, and after this, and after putting in a heavy left on Dunn's stomach, Dunn seemed to be dazed. Dunn used left and right as rapidly as he could, and soon had Dunn groggy. When the bell rang Dunn did not know where he was. Police Captain Clayton then stopped the fight and the referee awarded the fight to Walcott.

Patterson, N. J., April 2.—The third annual tournament of the live pigeon shooting under the auspices of the Interstate manufacturers and dealers association was held at the Patterson Hotel. Chicago, April 3.—The Republicans smashed all previous election records in Chicago. The complete returns give George B. Swift, Republican for mayor, 41,110, the largest ever known here in similar contest. The civil service law was carried by a large majority. The other candidates on the Republican ticket were all elected, although Trude, Democratic candidate for city attorney, ran nearly 20,000 ahead of his ticket. The Republicans also made a clean sweep of the town offices, south, north and west and in the annexed districts, Hyde park and Lakeview, while in the town of Lake in the stock yards district, one of the supposed Democratic strongholds, the Republican landslide was remarkable.

WORKED BOTH WAYS

STRENGTH TOLD BY THE AD-VENTUROUS SEAMAN.

Coal Ship Wachuset, from Nantux to San Francisco, Encounters Unusually Rough Weather—A Mounting Wave Sweeps the Deck Carrying Away Four Sailors—Those on Deck Stand Aghast at the Fate of Their Companions—Wave Obligingly Turns Back and Sets the Men Down Again Precisely on Deck Without Injury.

San Francisco, April 3.—The coal laden ship, Wachuset, arrived today, twenty-two days from Nantux, B. C., after having encountered unusually rough weather. The officers and crew of the Wachuset repeat a tale of the sea that has been many times told and almost as many times doubted.

On March 13, 20 and 21, the vessel labored through a succession of strong southwesterly gales, with high cross seas running. The ship was submerged most of the time, rolling fearfully and her cargo shifted until she had a bad list starboard. Much damage was done to her hull and the stanchions. During the height of the gale, occurred an incident about which the sailors are still talking. A terrific wave came down on the vessel, sweeping her for her full length, and carried four seamen overboard. The others of the crew cowered before the fearful sight, and gave up ever again seeing their mates alive. The four men were carried to some distance off, only to be swept back to the vessel again by a tremendous cross sea. Three of them were thrown violently overboard, and the fourth man was washed within reach of the fore-sheet, which had dipped to the rolling of the craft. He grabbed it, held fast and was hauled safely on board.

FELL OF THE LIFE RAFT.
One Passenger of the Captured Steamer, Buckeye, is Drowned.
Whitcomb, Wash., April 3.—But one death resulted from the capsizing of the steamer Buckeye near here last night. The life raft, which was missing last night with four men, was picked up this morning by the tug Bodden. The four men were carried to some distance off, only to be swept back to the vessel again by a tremendous cross sea. Three of them were thrown violently overboard, and the fourth man was washed within reach of the fore-sheet, which had dipped to the rolling of the craft. He grabbed it, held fast and was hauled safely on board.

YACHT REPORTED TO BE LOST.
Robinson Cruise Missing With Prominent New Yorkers Aboard.
Jacksonville, Fla., April 3.—The report that the Robinson Cruise, a yacht which was missing last night with four men, was picked up this morning by the tug Bodden. The four men were carried to some distance off, only to be swept back to the vessel again by a tremendous cross sea. Three of them were thrown violently overboard, and the fourth man was washed within reach of the fore-sheet, which had dipped to the rolling of the craft. What a Blessing.
It is to have strong nerves, and how many are denied it. They to whom nature has been niggard in this respect can enjoy nerve vigor and quietude if they use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. One of the finest nerves and tonics in existence. Dyspepsia, a prophylactic of nerve impotence, is invariably overcome by this gentle medicine, which is also potent as a remedy for malaria and kidney trouble and consumption.

Omaha, Neb., April 3.—Serious trouble is still anticipated by the federal authorities in connection with the Nebraska Indian reservations. It has been decided that United States marshals and not Indian police will be utilized in hope of avoiding trouble.

Ignorance of law is not excusable. Ignorance of the merits of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is a common fault of the times. Found in city, town or hamlet.

Frozen fire plugs are the terror of the firemen on cold days and nights. They constitute a serious obstacle right at the time when all are anxious to get to work on the burning building, and in case of a fire are often responsible for great loss. The moment a fire engine reaches its position at a fire during zero weather what is known as a thawing hose is immediately attached to a valve connected with the boiler and turned on the frozen plug. If it is found to be frozen a considerable distance from the engine, the hose of the hose is jammed into the hard ground. The powerful steam jet soon accomplishes the desired purpose. The thaw hose, which is part of the outfit of every fire engine, is often used to thaw the engine as well as frozen plugs.—Philadelphia Record.

On the occasion of Lord Mervill's trial before the house of lords Hook had a seat among the spectators. He could not resist the opportunity of manifesting his neighbors a lady and her daughter from Sussex. When the bishops appeared in their state attire, wearing scarves and long sleeves over their clerical robes, he confidentially observed to the lady:

"These are not gentlemen. They are ladies, elderly ladies—the dowager peeresses in their own right."

When the speaker of the house of commons appeared and attracted attention by the rich embroidery of his robes, the lady inquired:

"Pray, sir, who is that fine looking person opposite?"

"That, madam," said Hook, "is Cardinal Wolsey."

"No, sir," cried the lady, with a look of angry disdain; "we know a little better than that. Cardinal Wolsey has been dead many a good year!"

"No such thing, madam, I assure you," replied Hook, with imperturbable gravity. "It has been, I know, so reported in the country, but without the least foundation. In fact, those rascally newspapers will say anything."—Temple Bar.

PARENTS, DON'T WORRY!

Paine's Celery Compound Strengthens Nervous Children.

Nervous exhaustion in children is worrying a great many fathers and mothers these days. While the hurry and bustle of modern life is bringing a constantly increasing strain upon grown men and women, there certainly comes to light the startling fact of a growing tendency toward nervousness among their children.

As these boys and girls, when older, will enter a life of nervous strain fully as exacting as that of today, it is no wonder that parents view with dismay these early signs of nervous weakness, and anxiously seek some means of making the young people stronger and well again. The remedy is at hand in every city and town in America.

It is the remedy prescribed by that great host of all modern educators, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college. It is Paine's Celery Compound, which Principal Phelps of New Haven and President Cook of the National Teachers' association have so recently recommended.

Countless parents today give their children Paine's celery compound and see them grow robust and vigorous day by day before their eyes till they are again restored to the perfect health that belongs to youth. Physicians everywhere advise the use of this great restorative and nerve food.

One of the danger signals of nervous exhaustion among young people is the lack of desire for food and the capriciousness of appetite. When their overwrought nervous systems have been driven to the point of exhaustion, their faces grow pale and pinched, their spirits decline, their bodies lose power, and finally they are unable to do anything but rest. They need more and more active means of supplying the difference, he "proves" what is not so easily attributable to diet. For instance, the color of the country cat is generally either gray or tortoiseshell, the common color being gray. On the other hand, observe the cat expert, the preponderant color among city cats is black.

In the next place the color of the eyes in city and country cats is found to be very different, the latter leaning largely to gray and green, while the city cat's eyes are mostly yellow and having far more glitter in them than have their country cousins. In the matter of tails, too, there is a difference. Country cats' tails are long and carried more nearly on a level with the back than that of the country cat. The country cat's paws are much flatter, broader and softer than the town cat's, the pads of the former being like velvet, and those of the latter like rubber.

Altogether, between the big haired rosy light eyes, velvet footed country cat, slipping noiselessly through the young wheat stalks, and the sneaky, long tailed, yellow eyed city cat patterning down an alleyway like a flying shadow, there are such differences between the two that result in time in the formation of two distinct species—Feline rusticus and Feline urbane.—New York Sun.

Don't forget to laugh. Laugh when you are happy, laugh when you are amused, laugh at yourself for being bored. There is always something to laugh at, and even when one is reduced to laughing at oneself that is very much better than to be "glum."

This is what laughter does for a woman. It keeps her heart young. It makes her like people for the sake of the pleasure they give her, and they, in turn, like her. It makes her sleep buoyant. It keeps her eyes bright. It keeps her face from wrinkling. It is a beautiful secret to no other. It does for the muscles of the face what exercise does for those of the body. It keeps them supple and prevents them from falling into those stiff and settled lines which mean old age.

There is no situation in life, except, of course, the inevitable tragic moments, that may not be relieved by laughter. It is hard to be humorous one's griefs and sorrows, but it can be done, and it is worth doing. To convey one's emotions and to make a mockery of one's annoyances may not seem to be the highest form of philosophy, but it is not so low a way to free one's mind and give one's heart over personal woes.—New York World.

CITY AND COUNTRY CATS.
Many Curious Points of Difference Between the Two Animals.
An observer has noted that there exist many points of difference between country and city cats. The country cat, he observes, is larger and heavier than those of the city, his paws being made of small field animals and little which are not so much as those of the city cat.
